Anti – Ragging Committee Meeting

Date: 22/06/2018

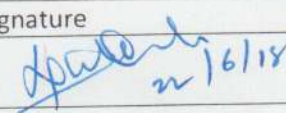

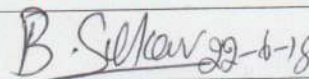

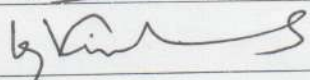

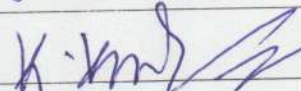

Venue: Meeting Hall

Minutes of the Meeting

Ragging is banned in all educational institutions as per government rules. Both the senior students and the new entrants of the institution have to be sensitized about the 'The Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Ragging Act, 1997.' The Anti-Ragging committee comprising teachers drawn from various departments have to ensure that no teasing, shaming or any act leading to embarrassment happen on campus or off campus.

The following points were discussed during the meeting:

- During the Student Induction Programme, the freshers have to be informed of the serious nature of ragging and to bring to the notice of the anti-ragging committee members at any time of the day any act affecting the physical or psychological state of the students.
- The Mobile Phone numbers of the Anti-Ragging Committee members are given in the Student Handbook for immediate complaint.
- All oral complaints have to be immediately acted upon.
- The hostel wardens are to give orientation to the students about the serious nature of ragging and to take immediate action without fear or favor.
- The NCC and NSS Programme Officers have to impress upon the students about the criminal nature of ragging through their volunteers.
- Class tutors have to brief the students about ragging and the possible consequences for the perpetrators.

Action Taken Report

Anti-Ragging Committee meeting was held on 27/03/2019 in the Meeting Hall.

As discussed during the beginning of the academic year some important actions were taken during the course of the academic year.

1. Observance of Freshers' Day by every department helped the freshers and the seniors to integrate well and find bonhomie.
2. The general address by the Principal during the beginning of the academic year warning students from desisting from ragging had a salutary effect on the students. He pointed out the possible punishments awaiting those who practiced ragging.
3. The mobile numbers of the anti-ragging committee members were published in the student handbook this year too.
4. The hostel wardens conducted separate meetings for the seniors and impressed upon them to conduct themselves with dignity and avoid all forms of ill treatment of the Juniors and Freshers.
5. The NCC and NSS volunteers played a crucial role in establishing good relations among the students.
6. No incident of ragging was reported during the academic year 2018- 2019.
